Liquid Bangkok

Discover the original Bangkok riverside neighbourhoods which are the foundation of the city's early development. Chinese, Portuguese, Muslim and British influences blend with Thai communities along Bangkok's famous Chao Phraya River. Using the waterway as our launch point, we'll walk in the steps of early Bangkok merchants, exploring the architecture, neighbourhood mercantile and commercial identities, as well as significant temples well off the usual beaten track. Several longtail boat starts and stops take us through Thonburi, Thailand's capital between the Ayutthaya and Bangkok periods, visiting old artisan villages, markets and art communities.

Program Includes: Experienced English speaking Thai guide, local Thai lunch, private longtail boat, drinking water, snacks, etc.

Duration: 3-6 hours

Options: specialist host, deluxe river boat, champagne moment (additional costs)

Price: Groups of 2 – $200 USD per person per day,

Groups of 3 or more – $145 USD per person per day

Cycling Hidden Bangkok

Hop on a bike and discover another side of Bangkok that you probably didn't expect to find. Today we'll head across the mighty Chao Phraya River to get a closer look at life beyond the skyscrapers in Bangkok's Thonburi area. We'll discover Ayutthaya-era temples, explore small canals, lush jungles, stop at local floating markets and visit sleepy communities where we'll get face to face with local life.

Flexible touring allows distance, activity level and focus matched to your desires. This is a perfect day for those who want some light activity and are in search of hidden secrets away from the crowds.

Highlights today can include:

- Ancient Hidden Temples
- Fun routes on elevated canal paths, quiet streets, bridges and even boats
- Lush green areas
- Sampling street food from ancient family recipes
- Original Thai, Chinese and Portuguese settlements and shrines

Program includes:

Specialized mountain bikes, helmets, gloves, snacks, drinking water, soft drinks, cool towels, entrances fees, transport costs and a professional host.

Meals: L Bike: 15-35 km (flexible touring)

Price: $250 USD per person per day (minimum 2 people)

Groups of 3 or more – $175 USD per person

Chinatown

Our Yaowarat (Bangkok Chinatown) half-day walk is an eye-opening journey into the back streets, spirit shrines, and frantic markets of one of the world's most vibrant Chinatowns.

The Chinese legacy of Bangkok's origins cannot be understated. As one of the original cornerstones of the city, early Chinese merchants enabled Bangkok commerce to thrive and turned the city into one of the great trading centers of Asia. Bangkok now boasts a population of more than one million Chinese and has one of the most colourful Chinatowns on the planet. Fast, frantic and eclectic, a ramble through Yaowarat is cacophony for the senses.

Explore narrow lanes, fresh markets, religious landmarks and textile booths. Enhance the journey by sampling street snacks while gaining candid impressions for the cultural mosaic that is Bangkok. Your host will take you to Chinatown via the Sky train and Underground systems on a roughly 4-5 hour outing at a time of your choosing.

Program includes:

Snacks, drinking water, soft drinks, cool towels, all entrances fees, transport costs and a professional host.

Duration: 4-5 hours

Meals: Local Snacks

Price: $125 USD per person per day (minimum 2 people), group

Private touring from $150 USD per person per day

Headlights: Foodies Rejoice!

Typically this delicious evening begins around 6:00 pm with a talk-walk through various neighbourhoods of old Bangkok near the riverside, followed by sampling some great local food from different streets, a cocktail or two in interesting places, and a near sensory overload visit through local markets and historical districts. We might commandeer a tuk tuk to jump spontaneously between areas. The evening winds up at either one of the famous red-light market districts, or even the Bohemian backpacker community of Khao San Road, depending on your hotel location and interests.

Program includes:

Snacks, drinking water, soft drinks, cool towels, all entrances fees, transport costs and a professional host.

Duration: 6 hours

Ancient Ayutthaya

We'll get up close and personal with Ayutthaya's stunning temples, from the must see root-entwined Buddha head to the hidden temples tucked away from the main sites. Today we'll explore everything Thai, from the great history, to the riverfront community, authentic cuisine and local village life, this intimate exploration of Ayutthaya gives you a genuine appreciation for the city's significance to the Thai people.

Our day trips in Bangkok and Ayutthaya are also designed to be run as independent trips. We often have business travelers with only one or two days free who really get a kick out of our 'Bangkok Multi-Transport' and 'Headlights' adventures, plus the Ancient Ayutthaya day trip.

There is a dress code recommendation for Buddhist sites in Ayutthaya of shirts that cover shoulders, and shorts/skirts that cover the knees. No beach sandals, but sport sandals with straps around the heel are okay.

Riding: 10 km (paved roads), van support is provided for non-riders.
